Ambassador Theard telephoned me at noon, February 12, to report that Mr. Eugene Maximilien, Haitian Consul General in Miami, had informed him that a meeting of 300 persons, mostly Cubans, was held at 6 p.m. last night at the apartment of an uncle of Rolando Masferrer, to discuss plans for the invasion of Haiti. Ambassador Theard said the meeting was held in Apartment #2 at 1716 SW 11th Street, Miami.

Ambassador Theard said the Consul General was fearful of an attempt against his life and requested that he be given protection. He said that the Consul General requested protection of the Miami police last night.

(This information was immediately communicated to Mr. Orrin Bartlett of the FBI, who said it would be transmitted to the Bureau's office in Miami. He said the FBI does not extend protection and added that Mr. Maximilien was correct in requesting assistance from the Miami police. However, the Haitian Ambassador's request would be included in the message to the Miami office as a matter of information.
